

Best decorated house

LORNA WARD

During the Olympic torch relay & Carnival celebrations, Newport Village Stores ran a competition for the best decorated Olympic themed house in the village. The response was fantastic with many houses not only along the torch route but also around the village entering into the spirit of the occasion. The most original entry came from Angela & Bob Benge of Frambury Lane. Their fence was not only adorned with Olympic related images but a life size Royal family sitting proudly at the top of the fence giving the impression of watching over the enthusiastic crowds. The cardboard cutouts certainly drew attention and smiles, and deservedly won the bottle of Champagne kindly donated by Alan Carr of Newport Village Stores. NN
